

The History of Israel (3)

This chart gives a simple outline of the people of Israel's history, from the Patriarchs to the Exile. This corresponds to the period from the Patriarchs and the Egyptian Sojourn, through the Exodus, Conquest and Judges, to the United Monarchy, the Northern and Southern Kingdoms up to the Exile.

Abraham & Sarah Isaac & Rebekah							THE PATRIARCHS
Jacob & Leah							Jacob & Rachel		Jacob & Bilhah		Jacob & Zilpah
Reuben	Simeon	Levi	Judah	Issachar	Zebulun	(Dinah)	Joseph	Benjamin	Dan	Naphtali	Gad	Asher
							Manasseh & Ephraim
							THE EGYPTIAN SOJOURN
		Moses & Aaron									THE EXODUS
				Caleb						Joshua		THE CONQUEST
		Eli Samuel		Othniel						Ehud		THE JUDGES
				Tola						Shamgar
				Jair?						Deborah Gideon Abimelech
				Ibzan		Elon				Jephthah?
								Abdon		Samson
				David Solomon				Saul		THE UNITED MONARCHY
				Rehoboam			Jeroboam
				THE SOUTHERN KINGDOM						THE NORTHERN KINGDOM
		Priests Levites		Abijam Asa		Prophets			Nadab Baasha Elah Zimri Omri Ahab Ahaziah Jehoram		Prophets
				Jehoshaphat					Obadiah Joel					Elijah
				Jehoram Ahaziah Athaliah Joash Amaziah Uzziah					Jonah					Elisha
				Jotham					Isaiah Micah					Amos
				Ahaz										Hosea
				Hezekiah Manasseh Amon Josiah Jehoahaz Jehoiakim Jehoiachin Zedekiah					Jeremiah Zephaniah Habakkuk					The Southern Kingdom (Judah) became a vassal state of Babylon, the temple was destroyed, and many of the population were deported in 587/586 B.C.
									Ezekiel Daniel
									THE EXILE

The Northern Kingdom (Samaria) became a vassal state of Assyria after the sack of Samaria in 721 B.C.

The Southern Kingdom (Judah) became a vassal state of Babylon, the temple was destroyed, and many of the population were deported in 587/586 B.C.